Re Item V

Reasoned statement with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

- 1 Reference is made to the following document:
D1: US-A-5 894 023
- 2 The document D1 is regarded as being the closest prior art to the subject-matter of claims 1 and 21, and shows a manifold system having a main- and a sub-manifold, a manifold plate, a backing plate and a further plate in the main manifold, which can be considered as air plate.
- 3 The subject-matter of claims 1 and 21 differs from this known manifold system in that the air plate is provided between main- und sub-manifold.
- 4 The subject-matter of claims 1 and 21 is therefore new (Article 33(2) PCT).
- 5 The problem to be solved by the present invention may be regarded as providing a more compact manifold design.
- 6 The solution to this problem proposed in claims 1 and 21 of the present application according to which the air plate comprising the actuator cavities is provided between main- and sub-manifold is considered as involving an inventive step (Article 33(3) PCT) since none of the available prior art suggests such an arrangement.
- 7 Claims 2-20 are dependent on claim 1 and as such also meet the requirements of the PCT with respect to novelty and inventive step.
- 8 The subject-matter of all claims is considered to be industrially applicable (Art. 33(4) PCT).
